

Job Title: Field Service Technician	Reports To: Field Service Supervisor, Service Manager or Branch Manager
Department: Service	Supervises: No direct reports
Revision Date: 6/2006	Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA): Non-Exempt

Job Summary:

The Field Service Technician is responsible for providing customer service in the field in order to troubleshoot, diagnose and repair commercial kitchen equipment and/or refrigeration equipment. Communication to the customer regarding the service is essential.

Essential Job Functions

- Provide highest level of service to the customer and communicate with the customer regarding the service needed
- Punctuality and attendance are crucial
- Must be able to properly troubleshoot, diagnose, and repair commercial food equipment and/or refrigeration equipment
- Perform preventative maintenance service
- Perform installation service
- Fill out work orders completely and legibly
- Communicate with dispatch upon arrival and departure from assignment
- Define service problems, collect data, establish facts and draw valid conclusions about work needed to be performed
- Create estimates and proposals as needed
- Effectively communicate with the following individuals:
  - Customers - regarding repairs
  - Dispatch - regarding status of service (via cell phone)
  - Parts - to order correct parts
  - General Manager or Service Manager on difficult calls
  - Factories as needed for help diagnosing problems with the equipment
- Collect from customers as needed
- Return to warranty coordinator warranty parts for return to the respective factories
- Maintain company supplied hand tools as well as tools required for the position
- Maintain company vehicle, including: cleanliness, organizing company inventory, keeping it fueled and serviced for regular oil changes and other maintenance services
- Must be able to use personal computer and operate software to look up part information
- Participate in continuous education – industry certification training is available and will be expected
- Obtain additional licenses and certifications as appropriate
- Other duties as needed
- Must be available for overtime calls and weekend service schedules. On call service schedules are for one week at a time.

Physical Demands:

- Must be able to climb stairs and ladders and lift and carry 75 pounds
- May be required to push a load across the floor of 150 lbs
- The job requires walking, standing, driving, sitting, squatting, kneeling, reaching overhead, twisting and turning for the better part of 8 hours
- Must be able to use hand for fine manipulation of hand tools

Minimum Qualifications

- High School diploma or GED
- Refrigeration technicians must be EPA certified
- Must have a valid driver's license from the state in which they are applying and must be insurable by our auto insurance company
- Must pass pre-employment drug screen
- Familiarity with commercial kitchen equipment, and/or refrigeration equipment a plus but not necessary if starting in the training program
- Must be highly safety conscious
- Abide by lockout/tagout training
- Able to work individually or as a team member with customers, co-workers and factory personnel
- Job requires excellent organizational skills, must be a motivated, self-starter, able to follow through on duties and assignments with minimal supervision
- Able to concentrate, handle pressure, meet deadlines and pay attention to detail

Approved

_____	_____
Employee	Date
_____	_____
Supervisor	Date
_____	_____
Human Resources	Date

NOTE: This job description is not intended to be all-inclusive. Employee may perform other related duties as negotiated to meet the ongoing needs of the organization.